

BIFP 2019 June 3 – 21- Application Procedure

Frequently Asked Questions

1) How do you qualify to be a Fellow?

- a) Be an accomplished instructor & educational professional with strong leadership potential, high-impact & an interest in learning/sharing new insights in the bioscience industry.
- b) Currently be in good standing with your home institution.
- c) Be nominated by your administration.
- d) Be willing to share data on the outcomes of this experience.

2) How do I apply?

- a) Complete an application at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/3VL2N32>
- b) Submit a current resume and two letters of reference.
- c) Participate in a telephone interview with the Selection Committee

3) Is there compensation for participants?

Meals, transportation, lodging, and a weekly participation allowance will be awarded for fellows that qualify

4) Is past training in the biosciences required?

No. All disciplines are encouraged, but an interest in science and laboratory work is required.

5) When and where will this Fellowship occur?

The Fellowship Project will be held in North Carolina from June 3-June 21, 2019. Fellows will participate in laboratory “boot camps” at 4 of NC’s community colleges, and visit multiple educational institutions and industry sites.